Instructor:

John Seppala, Lecturer and Actuarial Science Coordinator
Department of Statistics, University of Florida

Instructor email:

jseppala@ufl.edu

Instructor office hours:

Tuesday and Thursday 8:45 am to 10:00 am

Teaching Assistant Information:

Jaewoong Joo

jaewoongjoo@ufl.edu

Office Hours: Mon Wed Fri 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm

Course information:

This course consists of synchronous discussions and asynchronous prerecorded video lectures. The discussions meet MWF Period 8 in LIT 109 and online.

Credit hours: 3. Contact hours: 3. Prerequisite: MAC 2311.

Course description:

A study of basic concepts in probability and statistics with engineering applications. Topics include descriptive statistics, probability, random variables, special discrete and continuous distributions, sampling, interval estimation, hypothesis testing, analysis of variance, and linear and multiple regression.

Course learning goals:

After successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- describe data sets visually and numerically
- calculate probabilities of events
- calculate probabilities, means, and variances for random variables
- calculate probabilities, means, and variances for special distributions
- make inferences using confidence intervals
- make inferences using hypothesis tests
- analyze data using ANOVA techniques
- analyze data using regression techniques

Welcome message:

Students,

Hello, and welcome to Engineering Statistics! I am excited to be teaching this course, and I hope that you are excited to be taking it! The course is a comprehensive treatment of introductory concepts of probability and statistics. In order to succeed in the course, you will need to vigorously attack the material, diligently keep up with and complete all assignments, properly apply and execute dozens of statistical techniques, and thoroughly prepare for the two exams during the semester. Upon successful completion of the course, you will have mastered the concepts and calculations of probability and statistics and should be well prepared to analyze data using a wide variety of techniques.

Please scroll through the information below to familiarize yourself with the basic course structure in Canvas. Then complete the rest of Pre-Module 0 to begin the course. I hope you will find this course interesting and useful, and that your experience this semester will be challenging and rewarding!

Grace and peace,

John Seppala

Modules:

The course is organized into 9 content modules. Each content module contains the following:

- Lecture videos (multimedia audio/visual/screen; 3 to 6 videos per module)
- Lecture notes (handwritten; usually 2 to 6 pages per lecture video)
- Course notes (typed; usually 1 or 2 pages per module)
- Homework assignments (4 to 8 problems per assignment; 1 or 2 assignments per module)

- Discussion boards (optional participation; 1 per module)

List of Graded Work:

The following items are components of the overall course grade:

- Course introduction quiz (online in Canvas), due Fri Jan 15
- 40 prerecorded video lectures (viewed online in Canvas using Mediasite), due each Sun/Tue/Thu
- 11 homework assignments (submitted online in Canvas), due each Sunday
- Two exams (online in Canvas), Mon Feb 15 to Fri Feb 26 and Mon Mar 15 to Fri Mar 26

Scope: Collectively, the instructor and the TA are available to help students succeed in the course. The instructor is the primary point of contact for administrative matters and the TA is the primary point of contact for instructional matters.

Communication: The instructor and the TA will each hold open office hours through ZOOM. In addition, they may be contacted by email, Canvas messaging, or Canvas discussion boards. Return correspondence will generally be made within 2 business days Monday through Friday, 8:00 am to 5:00 pm.

Conduct: Please follow the UF Netiquette Guide for Online Courses.

Section 2: Required and Recommended Materials for this Course

- Textbooks: The following textbook is only available through UF All Access and is required for the course:
 - Probability and Statistics for Engineers and Scientists (9e), by Walpole, Myers, Myers, and Ye
- Calculators: A graphing or scientific calculator is highly recommended for the course. Calculators can be purchased at walmart.com, target.com, bestbuy.com, officemax.com, and epsstore.ti.com.
- Homework Assignments: Pearson My Lab and Mastering is required for homework access and submission.
 - Instructions for My Lab and Mastering Opt-In
- Required Technology: Students will need to use ZOOM, Adobe Reader, My Lab and Mastering, and a reliable high speed Ethernet connection for various elements of the course.
- Course Fees: N/A

Section 3: Grading Policies and Grading Scale

- Late Videos: NO credit will be given for any reason for lecture videos watched after their due dates.
- Late Homework: Late homework is NOT accepted for any reason. At the end of the semester, the lowest homework score will be replaced by the second-lowest score.
- Make-up Exams: All students are required to take the two exams during the semester at the scheduled time(s). Make-up exams will ONLY be given for documented cases of emergencies. Proper notification should be given to the instructor as soon as possible. Any approved make-up exams will be given at the sole discretion of the instructor. No credit is given for an exam that is not taken.
- Grade FAQs:
 - Do you give extra credit? No.
 - Can I redo an assignment/project for a higher grade? No.
 - Will you curve the assignments or project? No.
 - Can you give me a higher final grade than I earned? No.
- Grade Feedback: Grades will generally post to the Canvas gradebook within one week of the assignment due date for all graded work (Introductory Quiz, Video Lectures, and Homework).
- Grade Calculation: The following assignments (worth 750 points total) will count towards the final course grade:
 - Introductory Quiz (70 points)
 - Lecture Videos (40 videos x 5 points each = 200 points)
 - Homework (11 assignments x 30 points each = 330 points)
 - Exams (150 points)
- Grading Scale: The following grading scale (in points) will be used for the course:
 - A = 675 to 750
 - A- = 660 to 674.99
 - B+ = 645 to 659.99
 - B = 600 to 644.99

- B- = 585 to 599.99
- C+ = 570 to 584.99
- C = 525 to 569.99
- D = 450 to 524.99
- E = 0 to 449.99
- Compliance: Grading in this class is consistent with UF Grading Policies.

Section 4: UF Policies Shaping This Course

Contact Hours:

"Contact Hours" refers to the hours per week in which students are in contact with the instructor, excluding office hours or other voluntary contact. The number of contact hours in this course (3) equals the number of credits offered for the course (3).

Workload:

As a Carnegie I, research-intensive university, UF is required by federal law to assign at least two hours of work outside of class for each contact hour. Work done in these hours may include reading/viewing assigned material and doing explicitly assigned individual or group work, as well as reviewing notes from class, synthesizing information in advance of exams or papers, and other self-determined study tasks.

Accommodation for Students with Disabilities:

Students with disabilities who experience learning barriers should connect with the Disability Resource Center to initiate the process of requesting accommodations. This class supports the needs of different learners. It is important for students to SUBMIT their accommodation letters to the instructor and REVIEW their access needs with the instructor at the very beginning of the semester.

Course Evaluations:

Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing end-of-semester course evaluations online via GatorEvals, which provides guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via the evaluation system. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at the public results website. Students will have at least one additional opportunity to provide anonymous feedback during the semester through GatorEvals Midterm Evaluations and/or another mechanism.

Course Recording:

Class and other open/group sessions may be aurally and/or visually recorded for students in the class to refer back to and for use of enrolled students who are unable to attend live. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate verbally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

Section 5: Additional Course Policies and Information

Honor Code

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code." Students are required to adhere to the Honor Code in all aspects of the course. On all work submitted for credit in the course, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, students are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. Any student found in violation of the Honor Code will receive a final course grade of "E" and may be subject to additional disciplinary action by the University. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor or TAs in this class.

Course Introduction Quiz

- 70 points total
- overview of course policies and completion of tasks in Pre-Module 0
- 60 minute time limit
- take and submit in Canvas

Lecture Videos

- 40 videos x 10 points each = 400 points total
- usually three or four videos per week throughout the semester
- approximately 25 to 50 minutes for most videos
- view in Canvas using Mediasite

Homework

- 11 assignments x 30 points each = 330 points total
- one assignment per week throughout the semester
- approximately 4 to 8 questions for each assignment
- approximately 2 to 4 hours for each assignment
- access and submit in Pearson My Lab and Mastering within Canvas

Exams

- Feb 15 to Feb 26 and Mar 15 to Mar 26
- 2 exams x 75 points each = 150 points total
- covers course content from modules A through F
- time limit to be determined
- take and submit in Canvas

Note: Elements of the syllabus are subject to amendment by the instructor. Students will be given prompt notification of any changes.
